Ardevi Prosecco Extra Dry, Veneto IT NV Bubbles: A great way to start off the evening. Cheap and cheerful, peachy with zippy acidity and freshness	$10	$16	$68
Pojer e Sandri, "Zero Infinito" Pet-Nat, Trentino IT NV Zero Infinto is from the Solaris variety, a man-made hybrid that is immune to most vine pests. This means the wines can be produced in a natural way, without the addition of sulfur or other chemicals. This wine is not disgorged and can be decanted off of the lees for a drier, crisper flavour. Stir up the lees into the wine for a tropical fruit flavour profile.	$13	$20	$90
Santa Lucia Franciacorta Brut, Lombardia, IT NV The "Champagne" of Italy. A blend of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, fermented in bottle and aged on lees for 2 years. Crisp tree fruits and toasty brioche notes on the palate.	$19	$30	$135
Domaine Daubanton Champagne Brut, FR, NV Champagne from an exciting small house in the Côte de Bar, a region newly in vogue. This bubbly is dry and elegant, with notes of red apple, bartlet pear, fresh bread and wet stone.	$28	$43	$195

Skin Contact	3oz	5oz	Bottle
Vigna Madre Cerasuolo d'Abruzzo, IT 2024 A fresh red from the Montepulciano grape of Abruzzo. Fresh and zippy with cherry and red berry notes.	$9	$14	$65
Di Giovanna, "Camurria", Orange Grillo, Sicily, IT, 2020 Orange wines have gotten a bit of a bad rap as of late, and for good reason. It often implies a complete disregard for proper winemaking, resulting in a wine full of faults that reeks of a chicken coop. This wine is not that. Expect a complex bouquet of dried apricots, orange peel and almond skin.	$14	$21	$95
Santa Barbara "Arnaldo" Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi, Marche, IT 2020 Amber with golden hues. Aromatic on the nose with notes of dried apricot, orange peel, and honey, alongside subtle hints of hazelnut and dried herbs. The palate is rich and textured, offering flavors of baked apple, preserved lemon, and a touch of spice. The extended skin contact gives it a slight tannic grip and a fuller body, balanced by vibrant acidity.	$18	$28	$125

White	3oz	5oz	Bottle
Señiorio de Arana "Viña del Oja" Rioja Blanco, Rioja SP 2024 100% Viura grape. Lemon, green apple, melon and a ton of minerality. Great acidity makes this an ideal pairing for seafood, tomato and vinaigrettes.	$9	$14	$65
Domaine de la Bretonniere Sauvignon Blanc, IGP Loire Valley FR 2024 A classically styled Sauvignon Blanc from the spiritual home of the grape in the Loire Valley. Typical SB grassy and herbal notes supported by citrus and a hint of mineral.	$10	$16	$70
The Juice Wine Company Chardonnay, 20 Mile Bench Niagara Peninsula CAN 2024 Fresh and sophisticated. Bursting with sofft apple and zesty citrus.	$11	$18	$80
Cesconi Pinot Grigio, Trentino IT 2022 Every wine by the glass list needs a Pinot Grigio, but does it have to be basically wine flavoured water? Heck no. This one is actually good.	$12	$19	$85
De Puppi Ribolla Gialla, Friuli IT 2022 A vivacious and elegant offering, where the zest of a citrus grove meets the purity of a mineral spring. Delicate notes of green apple and lemon zest with lively acidity.	$12	$19	$85
Vignalta Chardonnay, Veneto IT 2022 Looking for a new world style Chardonnay but want to give USA wine a break? Apple, pear and quince notes with a hint of toasty oak.	$12	$19	$85
Castel Juval "Gletcherschliff" Riesling, Alto Adige IT 2022 From high altitude vineyards nestled in amongst the Alps. This Riesling has electric acidity and is bone dry. Intense aromas of lemon and lime peel with a hint of petrol. Soooo good!	$15	$23	$104
Sergio Mottura "La Torre a Civitella" Grechetto, Lazio IT 2022 Grechetto from central Italy. A very cool diversion for the Chardonnay lover. Vibrant and fresh Grechetto aged in oak barrels sourced from Loius Latour's cooperage in Burgundy. Of course, very Burgundian on the pallet with green apple, citrus, nutty notes and a creamy, oaky finish.	$16	$24	$110
Henry Pellé "La Croix au Garde" Sancerre, Loire Valley FR 2024 This Sauvignon Blanc from the Loire had excellent balance of fruit and acidity. Theres' a unique kind of purity and clarity here, supported by vivid smokey, mineral flavours.	$17	$26	$115
Domaine Garnier & Fils Chablis, Burgundy FR 2022 Grown on ancient Kimmeridgian limestone in the northern reaches of Burgundy. This Chardonnay tastes more of the soil than the grape itself. Chalky limestone and wet stones are front and centre with tree fruit notes supporting. As always with good Chablis, saliva inducing acidity on the attack with a long finish.	$20	$31	$140
Federico Graziani "Mareneve" Sicilian White, IT 2019 Rising star Federico Graziani brazenly planted an array of international varieties high up on Mount Etna. He then blends those varieties with the native Carricante. This resulting wine, on the palate, is like licking a rock (but in the best way possible). While Federico's eclectic assemblage prevents him from calling this wine Etna Bianco it is exactly what many Etna producers are striving to achieve.	$36	$56	$250

Domaine Coudoulet Pinot Noir, Pays d'Oc FR 2022 Bright, juicy and ripe pinot from the south of France. This wine is such good value you should definitely have a third glass.	$10	$15	$68
Petit St. Jacques Minervois Rouge, Languedoc FR 2022 A blend of Grenache and Syrah from the French Mediterranean region of Minervois. Rich and full on the palate with flavours of raspberry, verging on blueberry, with a chocolatey finish.	$10	$15	$68
Viña Cobos "Felino" Cabernet Sauvignon, Mendoza ARG 2023 Ruby-red with notes of ripe red and dark berries, and spice. Smooth tannins and a long finish.	$10	$17	$75
Señiorio de Arana "Viña del Oja" Rioja Crianza, Rioja SP 2020 Raspberry, vanilla, baking spices and dried herbs. Rich and smooth on the palate.	$10	$17	$75
Albino Rocca Barbera d'Alba, Piedmont IT 2023 Brilliant ruby-red with aromas of black cherry, plum and violets. Juicy and fresh on the palate with ripe fruit flavours, soft tannins and a long, clean finish.	$11	$18	$80
The Juice Wine Company Gamay Noir, Niagara Peninsula 2024 The relaxed overachiever. Dry, fruit driven and so fresh. "Crushable" doesn't even begin to cover it - this is the kind of wine that makes you wonder how the bottle go empty so fast.	$11	$18	$80
Vignalta Cabernet./Merlot, Veneto IT 2019 Our alternative to Napa Cabernet. Blackberry, cherry and plummy fruit. Cedar and tobacco with smooth tannins and a long finish.	$12	$19	$85
Monte Bernardi "Sangió"' Chianti Classico, Tuscany IT 2021 This 100% Sangiovese is sourced from Panzano, the cru of Chianti Classico. Taste the true essence of this grape, grown on steep rocky slopes and at high altitude.	$13	$20	$88
Norman Hardie "County" Cabernet Franc, Prince Edward County CAN 2021 Cabernet Franc is right at home in The County and there's no better producer there than Norman Hardie. Ripe red berry and black tea notes with freshness and elegance	$13	$20	$89
Paolo Manzone "Carlin" Nebbiolo d'Alba, Piemonte IT 2024 Varietally correct, early drinking Nebbiolo. Bing cherry, dried herbs and a hint of mushroom. Linear acidity and tannin keeps this wine seeming lighter on the palate than it should be. An elegant, yet quaffable wine.	$13	$21	$93
Super Uco "Calcáreo", Malbec, Mendoza ARG 2022 The Michelini Brothers created Super Uco to highlight the unique terroir of the Uco Valley in Mendoza. It is here that the Malbec grape really shines. Intense purple black with notes of plum, blueberry, flowers and spice. Abundant but smooth tannins and a very long finish.	$14	$21	$95
Valentina Passalacqua "Progetto Calcarius: Nero di Troia, Puglia IT 2021 Complex nose of violets, wild raspberry, leather and, as Alexis says, Cherry Blaster. Chalky mineral and austere as all heck on the palate.	$14	$21	$96
Château Bertrand-Braneyre Haut-Medoc, Bordeaux FR 2011 An elegant, mature left bank Bordeaux. While still exhibiting a core of dark berry fruit, the pallet is dominated by notes of the bouquet: graphite, tea, leather and mushroom.	$16	$26	$115
Montevetrano "Core Rosso" Aglianico, Campania IT 2019 A legendary producer from Campania who is a benchmark for the region. This beauty is 100% Aglianico with deep ruby red color and has a complex aroma of black cherry, blackberry, licorice, and tobacco. On the palate, Core Rosso is full-bodied and well-structured, with firm tannins and a long, persistent finish.	$17	$27	$122
Domaine C&C Marechal "Cuvée Gravel" Bourgone Rouge, Burgundy FR 2021 Pinot Noir from it's spiritual home, the place it longs to be. Harvested from the golden slope that curls south from Dijon and fermented into the most revered of wine styles. Elegant and nuanced, redolent of red berries, spice and underbrush.	$17	$27	$122
Castel Juval Pinot Nero Riserva, Alto Adige IT 2019 This Pinot Noir is a true "mountain wine". Sourced from high up in the Italian Alps, these grapes reach incredible phenolic ripeness (think flavours) but struggle to achieve high sugar levels. The result: fully ripe pinot flavours with elegance and finesse.	$23	$36	$164
Marisa Cuomo "Furore Rosso Riserva" Aglianico/Piedirosso, Amalfi Coast IT 2017 Marisa Cuomo cultivates her vines literally on the edge of a cliff and thus refers to her wines as "extreme". Previously, these wines could only be enjoyed by the rich and famous in the Amalfi Coast. Join the likes of Mick Jagger and Gore Vidal and taste the wine of Amalfi.	$25	$39	$175
Chiara Condello "Le Lucciole" Sangiovese di Romagana, IT 2020 The top wine from ambitious young winemaker, Chiara Condello. This wine is more savory than fruity, with a generous whack of minerality from limestone soils.	$29	$44	$200
Domaine Maréchal Pommard "La Chàniere" Burgundy FR 2019 Single Vineyard Pinot Noir from an ambitious Burgundy producer. Ripe red berry flavours supported by some spice aromas and notes of the forest floor.	$29	$44	$200
Super Uco "Genitori Mio", Cabernet Sauvignon, Mendoza ARG 2018 Another excellent effort by the Michelini Brothers (see above). This old vine Cabernet Sauvignon is precisely half way between Cru Classé Bordeaux and Napa Valley Cabernet in style.	$34	$52	$235
